

The Theodor Seuss Geisel Award

This award is given for the most distinguished beginning reader book. Each year, the ALA awards author(s) and illustrator(s) a bronze medal for their efforts in creating books for beginning readers.

The ALA says, "The award is named for the world-renowned children's author, Theodor Geisel. "A person's a person no matter how small," Theodor Geisel, a.k.a. Dr. Seuss, would say. "Children want the same things we want: to laugh, to be challenged, to be entertained and delighted." Brilliant, playful, and always respectful of children, Dr. Seuss charmed his way into the consciousness of four generations of youngsters and parents. In the process, he helped them to read." Click on the bronze Theodor Seuss Geisel Award to go to their website to see this years winners!